street enginehouse, but the aid of the firemen was not called into requisition, the fire being quietly extinguished by a cash-boy, who got out on the roof and deluged the burning part with a bucket of water.

There is some strange provision in nature which induces drunken men to wander into the stationhouse, the very place one would imagine they would avoid unless they are escorted there by an officer; but drunken men go there voluntarily, probably in order to prove that they are sober. -At 3 o'clock yesterday a fire broke out —At 3 o'clock yesterday a new broad out in the roof of a two-story frame building, No. 303 Pontotoc street, cast of Desoto. The fire was extinguished before much damage resulted. Part of the roof was destroyed. The building is owned by Joseph Clouston, and was occupied by a colored woman named

-At Nashville, they tell this little story —At Nashville, they tell this little story on Judge Hawkins, our present governor, as illustrative of his tender feelings for unfortunates who have fallen under the ban of the law: A gentleman who brushed against him in the Maxwell house the other day, hastened back to say: "Beg pardon, Governor." "All right," amiably remarked his carellance." his excellency, "come up to my office in the morning, and I'll make out the papers."

Brothers, let us stand united, Firm and true in heart and hand, North and south, in solid column, Pledged a strong fraternal band. Nations bow their heads to listen, To the pledge we make to-day, While we fold the blue around us, Don't forget the fading gray. -At an election held last Wednesday magistrate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late Esquire Varnell, in the lifteenth civil district, which includes Chelsea, in the ninth ward, the result was as fellows: I. Jennings, 162 votes (elected); J. B. Griffing, 42; J. B. Prescott, 34; R. B. Miller, 27. Mr. Jennings, who is a Republican, received the solid colored vote. The white vote was divided between the other three candidates, and several hundred white voters kept away rom the polls, not taking any interest in the contest.

—A well-known cotton man, who speculated largely in bucket-shop futures, when the news of the suspension of the Tennessee Brokerage association office here reached his ears on Wednesday morning, rushed frantically and excitedly to the office, holding in his hands a pile of red checks, and brushing everybody aside, almost pitched himself over the Jounter and gasped out: "Give me my money back." When he was coolly informed that he would not only get his marrins back that he would not only get his margins back but also the profits on his speculations he subsided amid the laughter of scores of other red-check holders. —At the criminal court yesterday John Beckman, who, with Sam Beck, keeps a sidewalk store on Main street, near Jefferson, Beckman, who, with Sam sidewalk store on Main street, near Jefferson, was put on trial on the charge of vending lottery tickets. LOCAL NOTICES.

Messra, Lawerner & Martin, 111 Madison street, Chicago, III.—Gentlemen: I have received "acertified formula," giving the ingredignts and relative proportions used in the manufacture of an article which you advertise and sell under the name of "TOLU, ROCK ANB RYE." This compound, according to your formula, in the opinion of this office, would have a sufficient quantity of the BALSAM OF TOLU to give it all the advantages ascribed to this article in pectoral complaints, while the Whisky and Syrup constitute an emulsion rendering the compound an agreeable remedy to the patient.

AMUSEMENTS. Leubrie's Theater. The Theater was filled last night by a fashionable audience, who enjoyed the won-derful performance given by Herrmann, the magician, and company. The programme that had been given on the three previous nights was changed in many respects, new tricks being introduced. The Decapitation act performed by Herrmann was cleverly done, but not particularly realistic or sensational. A change of programme will also be given to-night. At the matinee to-morrow, the Spirit Cabinet and Arial Suspension act of Mile. Addie will be reproduced, and a number of presents will be given the chil-dren in attendance. Herrmann will close his engagement on Saturday night. Monday night next, at the Theater, The Emigrants, a comedy-drama, will be presented by Baker and Farron. An exchange says: "During the performance Messrs.
